

terralocotidbits...

Surf the Outernet! • May, 2009 • rex@terraloco.com

Old (and new) Oakland

Summer is not a bummer

- 6/14 Old Oakland Orientouring
- 7/19 Merritt College Medley, Oakland
- 8/2 Crown Beach Crab Cross, Alameda
- 8/16 Lakeside Grand Prix, Oakland

Terraloco celebrates its one year anniversary at Lakeside! The Lakeside and Crown Beach events feature fun courses with many twists. Enjoy a sprint motala at Merritt counting for BAOC and NA sprint points. Expect some flat and historic fun on the new Old Oakland map!

Deep Thoughts

by Rex Andy

Terraloco has come roaring back to life for the Summer with a Sunday event series and a weekday evening training series. So far, it's been fun! Thanks to Eric and Julie Wilson of Fleet Feet Berkeley for collaborating with BAOC and Terraloco to hold the March Berkeley Hills street event. Sadly, Fleet Feet has closed. We wish Eric and Julie best of luck.

Represent the Bay Area

I've mapped the area around the lagoon and all the flat stuff at Miller Knox on the bay in Richmond; I've also done a page's worth of the Berkeley Hills at 1:10000. Working right now on Old Oakland!

Icy Hot Gossip

I'm hosting the June 4 training in Oakland from my home, enjoy a small party after doing the maze-o in the canyon... Terraloco is partnering with a BAOC committee now to coproduce the "Golden Gate Getaway" in November, starting with BAOC's Pacheco Pass A-meet and ending with the North American Sprint Finals... rumor has it members of the Canadian team are coming... hopefully the U.S. team will represent too... Int'l orienteers Patrick Goeres and Øystein Sorenson scorched the 5/7 Joaquin Miller training...